

Better Together: God First (Matthew 6:33)

Introduction

Peanut butter is better with jelly. Popcorn is better with soda. Cheese is better with crackers. And do you know what? You're better with the people who are closest to you in your life. Over the next 4 weeks we'll look at the keys to learning about how to grow and become better together.

Use the questions below to create discussion and open dialog between you and the group.

Discussion Questions

1. What is the most rewarding relationship in your life right now? What is the most difficult?
2. What is one thing you are hoping and praying to get better, in one or more relationships, in your life, during this series?
3. Whether you're dating, married or single; what ways do you put God first? What ways do you struggle to put God first?
4. What does praying together as a couple/family look like? (share personal stories of times when coming together in prayer has helped or could have helped) Matthew 18:20
5. How does talking about the bible help your marriage, family, or relationships around you? (what interferences keep you from being able to do so?) Deuteronomy 6:6-7
6. Do you attend church as a family/couple? How does this affect those relationships, good or bad? Luke 4:16 Psalm 127:1

Weeks Challenge

What steps this week do you need to talk in order to put God first in your relationship, future relationships, or family relationships.

Changing your mind

“But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well” Mathew 6:33
