

Better Together: Kung Fu Fighting (Genesis 2:24)

Introduction

Peanut butter is better with jelly. Popcorn is better with soda. Cheese is better with crackers. And do you know what? You're better with the people who are closest to you in your life. Over the next 4 weeks we'll look at the keys to learning about how to grow and become better together.

Use the questions below to create discussion and open dialog between you and the group.

Discussion Questions

1. What is the most ridiculous thing you have gotten in an argument over with your spouse or with someone in your family?
2. Who would you say is the better fighter? (Not who is best at winning, but at resolving the matter)
 - a. Remember 'When you fight to win, you lose the friendship.'
3. What is one tactic you have learned that has helped you in resolving conflict?
4. On Sunday Pastor Robby had 3 points
 - a. Stop and Listen carefully (proverbs 18:2)
 - b. Guard your words vigilantly (proverbs 21:23)
 - c. Manage your anger righteously (Ephesians 4:26-27)

Talk about which of these you find you or your spouse or a family member does best, and which ones you feel you struggle with

5. Looking back on the most ridiculous argument or fight you shared at the beginning, how would/ could you have maneuvered that in the right way, in God's way?
6. Moving forward: what is one thing you can pray about to improve how you fight with your spouse or family?

Weeks Challenge

In times of conflict, I will fight for unity, not for personal victory

Changing your mind

"For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and they will become one flesh." (Genesis 2:24)
