WHAT TO DO

Bake something with your child.

Maybe brownies, cookies, or a cake. While you are baking, find a time to tell your child/children what you think about him/her.

Who you say your kids are means a lot to them. It can be as simple as telling them something you like about them or talking about the potential you see in them.

PURPOSE . . .

Discuss how you are being careful to add just the right ingredients so the baked good comes out just right. God made your child and he/she is special to God... He even says how much He likes us and He even thinks about us all the time.

Encourage other friends on social media to take this challenge too!
#wearerc and show us what your family learned this week!
